SHOOTS HIMSBLY IN THE PARK AVENUE HOTEL.

Arthur Taylor, son of the late John Taylor, who amassed a fortune in the restaurant bush ness years ago at the corner of Broadway and Franklin street, shot and killed himself yesterday in his room in the Park Avenue Hotel. Taylor registered at the hotel on Friday morning under his own name and from Manchester, Vt. He was around the hotel several hours during the day, but was last seen alive at 8 o'clock Friday afternoon. a champermaid made several attempts to get into his room yesterday, and at 1:30 o'clock she odified the office that she had been unsuccess ful. A ballboy was lifted up to the transom reported that the occupant of room was lying on the floor with revolver beside him. Then the door was forced and Taylor was found dead, having shot himself through the mouth. A 82caliber revolver was beside him. Taylor was fully dressed and from the position of his body it is thought that he stood in front of the dresser glass when he fired. On the dresser was a card on which was written:

Dr. Freeman was summoned by telephone an burried to the hotel. He identified the body as that of his brother-in-law. Dr. Freeman was greatly shocked at the suicide. He made artangements with an undertaker to take charge of the body as soon as the necessary permi was given for its removal. Dr. Freeman then went to his home and broke the news to his temily. Later Dr. Freeman told the reporter

"He had no troubles." said Dr. Freeman "that would cause him any worry. He had plenty of money and his married life was very happy. His summer home was in Manchester, Vt., where his wife and three-year-old son are. His folks here in town didn't know he was in Vt., where his wife and three-year-old son are.

His folks here in town didn't know he was in Mew York. I hadn't seen him in two months.
I can't for the life of me give one spacen for his taking his life."
Taylor's father left a fortune, and was the owner of the Osborne Apartment House, at Fifty-seventh street and Seventh avenue, where Dr. Freeman lives. Arthur Taylor and his family lived there until a year ago, when he rented his anartments and with his wife and child went on a pleasure trip to Europe. They returned in April and soon after that went to Manchester to live.
Taylor was 36 years old a da member of the Racquet, the Military and the St. Nicholas Skating clubs and the Crescent Athletic Club of Brooklyn. He was a nepiew of William Taylor, the proprietor of the Hotel St. Denfs.
His wife was Miss Clara Luneschloss of this city. He has two brothers—John, who lives in Bay Side, L. I, and Alfredo, who is now in Paris.
One of his jets re married Dr. Freeman and the other married Dr. John Ely of New Haven, Conn. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

Manchester, Vt., July 7.—Arthur Taylor came here last summ r and spint the season in Manchester. In the fall he purchased the Cascales, a beautiful summer cottage in this village. This summer he had made it his permanent residence. Mr. Taylor left town on Thursday evening on the siceper for New York to keep a business appointment and to return the next day. Since then inquiries have been made for him, but to no avail.

CIDE PROM A PERRYBOAT.

the Pennsylvania Railroad ferryboat Philadelphia was on her last trip from New York early yesterday morning, a man who was standing on the upper deck threw off his coat and jumped into the river. Life preservers were thrown overboard and the boat stopped were thrown overboard and the boat stopped and backed up, but no trace could be found of the man. In one of the pockets of his coat was found a letter addressed to Mr. Charles Stovel, 29 East Tenth street, New York. Mr. Stovel is a dealer in feathers at that address, but could not be found there yesterday. The letter was as follows:

"My Best Friend: I am going down to the Twenty-third street ferry, buy a ticket, get aboard, and when half way over jump off. All my belongings are in my pants of the last new suit.

"One more unfortunate. Weary of breatt Rashly importunate, Gone to his death.

Gone to his death.

"Convey to my mother my best love. May God give her courage to stand the news. My brother's address is Toronto, care of Board of Trade. This trouble I now bring on you is unavoidable. Good-by.

"New York, July 6, 1800. Jack R. Baud."
Notenant of the business building at 29 East Tenth street could be found who knew anything of Eaud nor did any of them seem to know where Mr. Stovel lived.

Toronto, July 7.—J. R. Baud, who jumped from a New York ferryboat to-day, was a brother of Charles W. Baud of James Carruthers & Co., grain merch. ats and leading grain exporting Board of Trade firm here. He was 28 years of age. His mother, who is in poor heal h, resides at St. Catharine's. The dead man was a native of Thorold. Ontario, and at one time was employed by a grain firm. Five years ago he left for Chicago, where he had a place as accountant. Then he went to New York and held an important position in an insurance office in that city for two years. He corresponded regularly with his relatives, and in a letter received a week ago he stated that he was preparing to spend his holidays in Toronto and St. Catharine's. His relatives say they know of no reason for his suiccide.

LEFT HUSBAND; KILLED HERSELF. cide of a Woman Who Deserted Her Fam 11y - Letter of Repentance.

Mrs. Alice Knight, who deserted her bussend and three children in Hoboken, committed suicide yesterday in her room at 150 East Thirty-second street, Manhattan, by inhaling illuminating gas. She was known to the landlady of the house as Mrs. Annie Walker, having rented her room in that name.

this terrible end. He has treated me shamefully. Oh I am so unhappy and must find peace. This is the only way to end my unhappy life.

"Oh. Al, you do not know how hard it is for me to do this. I should like some day to be with my dear children. Al, — took Grace's silver cup and pawned it for 50 cents. He has the ticket.

"Kiss the children for me and take them where their mother's name may never be spoken. Your unhappy wife, ALICE."

Mr. Knight, who is employed as a clerk in a big paint-manufacturing concern in this city, identified the body. He said that he would pay the funeral expenses, and he engaged an undertaker. He said that his wife was fond of going to theatres and parties, and that he had only a limited income sufficient to support his home. He said he had a comfortable home, and could not understand his wife's infatuation for the man she named in her letter who, he said, worked for an express company.

A man about 60 years old committed suicide yes terday morning in the Ramble in Central Park by swallowing carbolic acid. The address of Mrs. W. F. Bettler, 300 West Twenty-ninth street, was found in his rocket. Mrs. Bettler called at the Morgue yesterday afternoon and identified the body as that of her father, Thomas Sizeland, a waiter, who lived at 250 West Thirty-fifth street.

Steamer Surgeon Jumps Overboard. HALIPAX, N. S., July 7.—Gerald Freeman, the surgeon of the Allan Line steamer Carthagen ian, disappeared as the steamer was coming up the harbor last night from Liver; ool. It is pre-sumed that he jumped overboard and was drowned. Freeman came from Dublin.

The Hartford to Cross the Atlantic. BOSTON, July 7.—Admiral Farragut's old flagship, Hartford, now a United States training ship, has been drydocked at the navy yard for an overhauling previous to her trip to Europe an overnaming previous to her trip to Europe. Capt. John M. Hawley is in command of the ship and expects to sail for Southampton the latter part of this month. The trip across will occupy about twenty-one days and she should arrive at Southampton about Aug. 10. On Aug. 30 she will leave for Kiel, where ten days will be spent. Havre will be the next port entered and two weeks will be spent there to allow the men to wait the Paris Exposition.

TWO PAMILIES SAVED PROM PIRE. Young Woman in Going to Alarm Thom Mot

a Negro in the Act of Running Away. POST JERVIS. N. Y., July 7.—The families of Richard Deits and Maurice Quinn, who reside in a double house in Matamoras. Pike county, Pa., owe their lives to the courage of Miss Ada Halpin, a bright young lady of that village Near midnight last night she was returning nome from Milford with a party of friends and saw a blaze in the rear of the double house. Against the wishes of her friends she alighted from the wagon, and as she rounded the corner of the house she encountered a negro in the act of running away. On the porch a fresh kindled fire was burning. The negro then made a pretence to extinguish the fire, but Miss Halpin. pretence to extinguish the fire, but Miss Halpin, noticing that he was very indifferent regarding the fire, directed him to alarm the household. The negro, after ejaculating "Let them burn." hastily ran to a wagon down the road and rapidly drove away. Miss Halpin then alarmed the people within and the fire was extinguished before any serious damage was done. Three nights ago the same house was set on fire in two places, but the people were awakened by smoke. Kerosene oil was found on the front of the house and in the cellar stairway, and the rope in the well was cut. It is believed that the negro did this deed also and the authorities are after him.
